

Supplementary Form

PHD IN GLOBAL DEVELOPMENT STUDIES

Name of Applicant:

The PhD Program specializes in research on the political economy of global development. Please specify where your proposed doctoral research is situated within this broader research focus (i.e., the political economy of environment and development, gender and development, labour and development, migration and development, etc.).

Publications:

Additional documents required:

1. Research Proposal: A 2500-word document that addresses, in detail, your proposed research plan at the PhD level together with a definitive statement of your research question.
2. Statement of Interest: Please address your previous work experience and general background related to International Development, along with any other details of your professional and personal life that you feel would be relevant to the successful adjudication of your application.
3. A current CV/Resume.
4. Sample(s) of academic written work, preferably published. (10-25 pages in length).
5. Short description of graduate level courses that were taken at the Masters level in Development Studies together with related courses that are specific to the proposed area of specialization.
6. We will accept uploaded unofficial transcripts for evaluation purposes. Applicants must upload a grading scale/legend with their unofficial transcripts. Successful applicants will be required to submit official final transcripts.
7. Three (3) Recommendation Forms. All three (3) must be of an academic nature.
8. Official Proof of English Language Proficiency (if required).

Graduate Funding: All applicants accepted into the program on a full-time basis are considered for graduate funding from the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research (FGSR).

Please upload the completed form to your online application.